About The Salt Path Film

- The screen adaptation of the best-selling memoir by Raynor Winn, starring Gillian Anderson and Jason Isaacs, directed by Marianne Elliott.
- Set against the stunning landscapes of the South West Coast Path, the film beautifully captures the rawness of nature, the challenges of the journey, and the profound connection between people and the natural world. It's a poignant exploration of survival, hope, and the power of the human spirit when faced with adversity.
- 30th May 2025 – UK release – Distributed by Black Bear Pictures
- 15th May 2025 – Australia release
- TBC – US release
- Key film locations on the SWCP: Minehead; Porlock; Hartland Peninsula; Clovelly; Newquay; Padstow; Rame Head.

About the South West Coast Path

The Salt Path is the name given by Raynor Winn to her and husband Moth's journey along the South West Coast Path – Britain's longest National Trail, and England's original coast path.

- Raynor Winn is an Ambassador of the South West Coast Path Association – the charity that cares for, champions, and connects people to the South West Coast Path.
- The South West Coast Path was designated as a National Trail in 1978. It is one of 20 National Trails in England and Wales.
- The South West Coast Path is a 630 mile walking route that starts at Minehead in Somerset, runs along the Devon and Cornwall coastlines, and finishes at Poole, Dorset.
- The trail passes through 1x National Park, 5x National Landscapes, 2x UNESCO World Heritage Sites, 1x UNESCO Geopark, 1x UNESCO Biosphere
- The South West Coast Path is a freely accessible walking/hiking trail. It can be accessed from many points along its 630-mile route and can be walked in small sections or longer sections.
- The South West Coast Path is renowned for being one of the world's great trails with visitors coming from all over the world to walk it.
- In 2024 the South West Coast Path was named 'the world's happiest walk'.
- The South West Coast Path Association produces The Official Guide to the South West Coast Path and recommends a 52 day itinerary to walk the entire 630 mile trail.
- To walk the South West Coast Path is the equivalent of climbing Mount Everest 4 times!
- The South West Coast Path costs on average £1,500 per mile per year to keep it open and accessible for the 9 million visitors that use it every year.

What We Do

- We provide vital information to help people explore and enjoy the Path.
- We raise funds to maintain and improve access to the Path.
- We protect the Path from the impact of climate change and build resilience to future-proof the Trail.
- We run Coast Path Connectors, a community engagement programme enabling more people to access the Path.
- We work with over 500 businesses along the SWCP route that enhance the journey for Path users alongside the Coast Path Passport scheme – a Camino-style passport.
